

2017 Smokin' on The Rez KCBS Judging Class Sept. 14 Class Application

The Barnett Reservoir Foundation invites people interested in learning more about and judging barbecue to attend a Kansas City Barbecue Society Judging Class Thursday, Sept. 14, 2017 in Ridgeland MS. Successful completion of the class will qualify you to begin judging in KCBS events around the state, region and country, including for some, the opportunity to judge in the two-day 2017 Smokin' on the Rez BBQ Contest and Music Festival Sept. 16-17 on the banks of beautiful Barnett Reservoir.

The site of the class will be announced at a later date.

The class will be conducted by KCBS representative Randy Bigler and will include a meal of all four meats judged during a typical KCBS event: pork ribs, pulled pork, chicken and beef brisket. Cost of the class is $55 for current KCBS members who register and pay the class fee by Sept. 7, and $60 the week of the class.

Cost of the class is $95 for non-KCBS members who register and pay the fee prior to Sept. 7, and $100 the week of the class. The fee includes your first year's membership in KCBS.
